

QUALITY COUNCIL OF INDIA

Applications are invited for the post of Secretary General, Quality Council of India, an autonomous body registered under the Societies Registration Act XXI of 1860, which has been set up in 1997 jointly by the Government of India and apex Indian industry associations. QCI was set up to establish and operate a national accreditation structure and promote quality through national quality campaign in India. Besides having three National Accreditation Boards, the Quality Council of India administers the National Quality Campaign and also connects with the National Information and Enquiry Service operated by Bureau of Indian Standards and National Accreditation Board for Laboratories and Calibration by the Department of Science and Technology.

Essential Qualifications:

The applicant should have a post graduate degree in Management; Public Administration; Economics; Physics; Chemistry or Biological Sciences. The applicant should be a person below 50 years of age with at least 20 years of work experience and a proven track record of working very closely with industry and government on the subject of quality, standards, conformity assessment and running a national quality movement. The person should be well versed in risk management with respect to certification and accreditation. He should also have experience in administration preferably of heading an organization and leading a team.

Pay:

The Secretary General will be offered a salary and perquisites commensurate with his qualifications and experience.

Mode of Recruitment: Direct selection.

Service tenure: 3 years

Interested persons may send their curriculum vitae (CV) within 30 days from the date of publication in the news paper by speed post or registered post to:-

Gopal Prasad
Deputy Secretary, Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion
Room No.257-A
Ministry of Commerce and Industry
Udyog Bhawan, Rafi Marg
New Delhi-110011.