

Section 2(ccd)

Inspecting Authority :

1. The firm should be registered firm.
2. It should not be involved in any commercial activity other than the inspection of materials or other items under Indian and International codes and standards.
3. It should have inhouse a design & drawing inspection office.
4. It should have various codes in their office & the knowledge of various international codes along with the Indian Boiler Act & regulations.
5. It should have employed the competent persons commissioned by Central Boiler Board.
6. They should have CV's of each and every person employed by him for inspection & certification of boilers.
7. Company matrix of work and experience.
8. They should have a training programme for competent persons.

.....